

Possessive Pronouns

Victor Queiroz

Circle the correct form.

Whose car is that? It's her / hers

This isn't my/mine pen. It's Susan's.

I think this book is your/yours.

This isn't your suitcase. It's ours/our.

Where's Mary? I think these are her/hers gloves.

These keys are mine/the mine.

They showed us all theirs/their vacation photographs.

These seats are theirs/their, not ours. We're over there.

Is this yours/your bag?

This isn't my jacket. It's her/hers.

Complete the sentences with a pronoun or possessive adjective.

This isn't my coffee. It's yours. Where's mine?

Is that her car? No, it's her boyfriend's. _____ is a white Ford.

Look. Here's a photo of Alex and Kim with _____ new baby.

We've finished paying for our house, so it's _____ now.

These are our tickets. Can you give Maria and Marta _____?

We both love gardening. Would you like to see _____ garden.

New York City is famous for _____ tall buildings.